

FIRST SEASON FOR 'K' OUTFIT PROVES WINNER

Jack Moon in Relief Role Has Downings' Club Well Manacled

FANS FOUR IN SIX

Playing their first season as a senior baseball team, Gordon Fowler's Kiwanis captured the championship of the Western City Senior league by defeating Pat Downings' hard-fighting warriors 7-6 in one of the most thrilling final games ever seen at Willowdale park. One of the largest crowds ever to assemble at the old sand pits watched two powerful teams battle through the very last ditch, and they cheered the new "champs" to the echo when Carmen Muir struck out to dash water on Downings' last hopes of tying up the score.

Moon Shines
The outstanding hero of the game was Pitcher Jack "Lefty" Moon, who relieved Teddy Shea on the mound for the last two innings. Moon, whose wisdom cost Kiwanis the game on Thursday night, made up for all of his "sins" by giving one of the finest pitching performances ever seen at the park. He allowed not even a foul ball, struck out four of the six batters he faced, and retired the side in order in both the eighth and ninth frames. Bobby Weir was shelled off the mound in the fifth when Downings scored four runs to tie the score. Kiwanis having counted four in the first inning, Teddy Shea, who relieved, got by fairly well for the next two frames, but Manager Gord Fowler decided on a bold bit of strategy when he yanked Shea in favor of Moon, and the move proved absolutely perfect. Moon's speed had the Downings batters handcuffed.

Fumbles Beat Owens
Fred Owens tossed steadily for the losers all the way, yielding only nine fairly well scattered hits, but four errors behind him spelled disaster.

Downings pulled a triple play in the first inning, the first in 25 years at Willowdale. With Hoag on second and Rider on first, Seymour hit to Russell, who trapped the ball. Hoag was tagged out off second, Rider was nicked coming from first, and then Russell tossed to Cater, who tripled Seymour at the initial sack.

Warm Water Predicted For Swim

Warmest in 11-Year History of Big Exhibition Annual

Warmest water in all the 11-year history of Exhibition swims seems Tuesday unless there is a sharp change of wind, according to George N. Duthie, sports director of the C.N.E.

Our tests show that the water along the seawall is even as high as 74, warmest we have ever had, and that may possibly mean that this coming race may set new time records," he said to-day.

"Of course," he added, "it is possible for the water to change quickly. I have known it to drop 10 degrees in a day."

No word has been received from Marvin Nelson, the burly lowan who was so often a swim winner. He was invited to enter in the men's 10-mile race, but has not responded.

Neither is George Young entered. He is working as a swimming instructor at a summer camp in Muskoka.

There is a long list of entries in the men's event and quite a sizeable one for the women's swim later on.

CLOSE GAME MARKS TOURNAMENT OPENER

Reinhardt's Score 6-5 Victory Over Canada L. Squad

Getting away to a good start, if a closely played ball game can be such as the C.N.E. world's championship softball tournament opened last night with Reinhardt's leaders of the Beaches League, scoring a 6 to 5 victory over Canada L., Jewish community league.

At the start it looked as though Reinhardt were going to make it a walk away, scoring a single in the second and Pratt clouting a homer in the second with a mate on base. But the Jewish leaguers came back to put together three hits, one a homer by Stein, and with the aid of error, shoved across four runs.

They counted another in the fifth, on a couple of hits, to tie their score while Reinhardt also made a move in this frame to tie up the game at five all. In the last of the eighth, two hits and a sacrifice brought Bradley home with the winning run as he held the losers scoreless in the ninth.

ACADIANS STOP TIGERS IN DENTONIA PLAY-OFF

Jimmy Mercer's flying Acadians continued their sensational home-stretch dash in their first game of the Dentonia playoffs last night as they shut out Steve McEvoy's Tigers 2-0 with superb hurling by Normie Burch and all round straight play.

Burch's dazzling speed allowed the Tiger crew a measly pair of safeties while the winners got to Don McDougall for five "Bushers". Young starred behind the plate for the Clubmen as well as smashing out two of their five bingles, although McDougall's wildness in the fifth frame when he walked a run helped the winners concentrate their scoring drive in this stanza.

Aeroplane View of St. Andrew's Golf Course, Showing the 18 Holes and Yardage for Championship

ACES REPEAT AGAINST CHAMPION DUNDEES

Score Win Behind Bush's Good Pitching to Force Sixth Game

Battling with their backs to the wall, Chris Speyer's Danforth Aces forced the champion Dundees into a sixth and deciding game for the West Toronto Senior Baseball championship by registering their second straight victory over the Scotsmen, 7 to 5, last night at Earlscourt park. The two teams met to-night at Earlscourt park at 8:45 o'clock, with the winner qualifying to meet Kiwanis, champions of the pit league, next Tuesday night at Earlscourt park in the T.A.B.A. championship playdown series.

The Aces came through with a glorious display defensively to admonish the champions on this occasion. Eddie Bush, 17-year-old fling star of the "Aces" squad, was again nominated to do the iron-man stunt for his club and the youthful righthander responded with a lovely effort to claim the decision over Lon John Bailey, only after a tight pitching duel. Bailey was right in form, limiting the Aces to four hits, walking four and whiffing a pair, while Bush was reached for five blows, struck out four and threw a like number. Great support by his teammates enabled Bush to weather the storm, while on the other hand Lon John Bailey's defensive forces really deprived him of any chance he might have had to claim the issue, the infield, in spots, resembling a sieve, committing five juicy mishaps behind his stellar mound work.

TIP TOPS, SIMMONS TAKE T.I.A. MATCHES

Kestenberg's Fine Effort Handcuffs Adams

Pitching beautiful ball, Joe Kestenberg held the flashy Adams team to four hits, pitching Tip Tops to victory 1-0 last night at A.C.A. Park in the first game of a T.I.A. intermediate doubleheader. In the nightcap affair, Simmons smashed out a win over Steel Company of Canada 11-5, in a very loosely played affair taking over two hours.

In the first game, Sinclair turned in a good effort on the mound for the Furniture lads, but poor hitting cost them a chance to take the series in straight wins, having to play another game to decide the group winner.

FIGHTS

New York—Emil Scholz, 190, Germany, outpointed Sandy McDonald, 205 1/2, Dallas, Tex. (10).
Johnstown, Pa.—Charles Burns, 138, Johnstown, outpointed Eddie Zivic, 130, Pittsburgh (10).
Hollywood, Cal.—Eddie Simms, 200, Cleveland, outpointed Jack Roper, 200, Los Angeles (10).
Bath, Me.—Kayo Castillo, Bar Harbor, Me., defeated Pete Tarpley, Athens, Ga. (6). (Newspaper decision.)

St. Andrew's Layout Is Big Test for Golf Stars

Plenty of Length With Wind Adding Extra Yardage at Times—Canadian Open Draws Stars for Big Event, Sept. 9-11

It won't be long now before the big shots of golfdom start whacking away at the St. Andrew's golf course, championship for the Canadian open, shooting for the Seagram gold cup. Thus a bit of chatter about the layout might be appropriate enough with the greatest golfers in North America due to tramp over the Yonge St. layout Sept. 9, 10, 11, with an international team match tossed in for good measure on the seventh of the month.

For the most part the St. Andrew's course is laid out around a dried-up river bed and thus natural hazards are very much in evidence. These have been utilized to excellent advantage. Furthermore, due to the fact that quite a number of fairways are on the plateaus above the old river basin and that St. Andrew's is located on high ground, north of Toronto, it gets little protection from the wind. The prevailing wind, therefore, usually changes the type of shot called for on some holes and if the breeze is from the west several of the holes will demand long hitting to achieve par figures.

Sixty-six hundred and twenty-five yards in length, the outward nine being 3,370, par 35, and the inward nine 3,255, par 35, there is little suggestion of extreme length, and yet the topography is such that almost every inch gained on some holes will largely determine whether or not the shot to the green is to get home. At the first, for instance, a good drive is much to be desired, for although the green is wide open on this 425-yard par four hole, owing to the flatness of the terrain in front of the green it is difficult to judge a long iron shot.

The second, 385 yards, par four, is a comparatively easy drive-and-pitch unless there is a cross wind. At the third, 235 yards, par three, the addition of a huge bunker on the right has converted this hole into a real one-shotter at which one can go "all-out" with wood or iron as may be deemed wise.

Here's a Problem
Then comes the fourth, 435 yards, par four, which follows the old river bed guarded by a small creek on the left and with a sentinel tree standing almost in the line of play at the right. Placing the tee shot is vitally more important, as is also a more or less blind second to a plateau 25 feet above. The green is large, well back, and has plenty of traps on three sides to dispose of poor marksmanship. Following the height of land the fifth parallels the fourth and is the same length, but there is little difficulty there, not is there at the 380-yard sixth, but the 180-yard seventh requires a full, firm shot to hold the well-bunkered but small green.

Possibly the eighth, 495 yards, par five will cause more trouble than any other hole, for the drive must be long and very straight to open the way for a full wood dog-shot to the green on the acute dog-

UNITEDS REGAIN LEAD IN BEACHES LEAGUE

"Spike" Bacon's Uniteds overpowered Gutta Percha 9 to 4 at Kew Gardens last night to recapture first place in the Beaches major fastball race. The game counts as a double win for Uniteds, who now lead Reinhardt by half a game.

Balmer's single, a free pass to Fereday and Rene D'Alvise's lusty triple gave the losers three in the fourth. They added one more run in the fifth to take a 4-2 lead but their defence faltered in the sixth when Uniteds counted two on a pair of hits and as many errors. The winners put things on ice in the seventh, scoring five times on a walk, three hits and two more misplays by Perchies.

HERO 'N' GOAT

THE HERO—Fred Frankhouse, who pitched seven-inning, no-hit victory for the Dodgers over the Reds, 5 to 0.
THE GOAT—Cliff Melton, who allowed the only run made by the Pirates as they beat the Giants, 1 to 0.

NORTHERNS TAKE FIRST OF ST. CLAIR FINALS

Nose Out Canada D's 4-3 in Hectic Tilt—Numerous Errors

Northern's took a one-game lead in the St. Clair "Y" Senior Softball league with a 4 to 3 win over Canada D's last night at Oakwood stadium. Canadas came within a hair of the game in the first half of the seventh stanza, leaving three men on base and the Hydro-electric deadline just seconds away, but Northern made the third out at the plate, and the street lights flared immediately after.

Loose fielding by the rival short-stops figured largely in the scoring. Jerry Hawkshaw making three misplays for the winners and Wes Carter two for Canadas. Hawkshaw made up for his miscues with his second hit in the sixth frame when he drove Murchie across the plate for Northern's fourth and winning run.

"Lefty" Danielson and "Bus" Benson, the opposing moundsmen, both seemed to be coasting all during the contest, but Danielson was in difficulties in the seventh frame, while the losers were counting their last two runs. Benson could not be blamed for the winners and Wes Carter winners made in the third, as all three errors of his teammates were made in that frame.

HOME RUNS

Yesterday's homers: Gehrig, Crosetti, Yankees; York, Walker, Tigers; Cronin, McNair, Red Sox; Averill, Indians; Ott, Giants; Handley, Pirates; Mize, Cardinals.
The leaders: DiMaggio, Yankees, 27; Fox, Red Sox, 31; Gehrig, Yankees, 29; Greenberg, Tigers, 28; Medwick, Cardinals, 27; York, Tigers, 27.
League totals: American, 636; National, 502; total, 1,138.

LARGE EVENING SET FOR ROCHE'S POINT

Local Fighters Listed on Charity Program

Big doings are expected on the Balfour Estate at Roche's Point to-night where a large slice of entertainment is being tossed to the customers at a nominal fee with all the proceeds going to the Mount Sinai hospital.

Most of the better-known boxing gentry will be on hand to give their services gratis on a fight card that no promoter could afford to stage in any one evening.

They include bantamweight champion of Canada; Dave Paul, game and rugged featherweight battler; Sammy Luftspring, who is in serious training for another whack at the welter title; Frankie Genovesi, welter champ, and a host of others, including Morris Bowmille, Joe Baginato, Davie Yack, will all be there and in action.

There will be comedy bouts, serious bouts, just bouts and dancing, fireworks and vaudeville acts and the fun starts at 9 o'clock.

WRESTLING

North Bergen, N.J.—Ernie Dusek, 228, Omaha, Neb., defeated Rebel Russell, 214, Texas, 29-32. (Russell was counted out while out of ring.)
New York—George Lenihan, Boston, pinned George Kondylis, Greece; Stanley Pinto, Texas, threw Sam Menacher, New York; Abe Coleman, Los Angeles, downed Ralph Graibaldi, St. Louis.

GEHRINGER SETTING FOR YANKEE RIVALS

Detroit Star Leads A.L. and Joe Medwick Old League Sluggers

New York, Aug. 28.—Charlie Gehringer, Detroit Tigers' second baseman, added 11 points to his average and held the American league batting leadership by a 23-point margin, according to averages released to-day and including games of Thursday.

Lou Gehrig, New York, dropped six points, but displaced Cecil Travis, Washington, in second place with 364. Travis dropped to fourth with 363. Joe DiMaggio, New York, continued to hold third place with 363.

Joe Medwick, St. Louis Cardinals' outfielder, dropped 11 points, but held the National league leadership with 360. Paul Waner, Pittsburgh, remained in second place with 357, while Gabby Hartnett, Chicago Cubs' catcher, held third spot with 372.

Charlie Root, Chicago Cubs, veteran reliever, took the National league pitching lead with 12 victories against four defeats. Cletus Poffenberger, Detroit rookie, led the American league hurlers with nine wins and two defeats.

CHIEF INTEREST NOW CENTRES IN "FAVORITE PLAYER" COMPETITION FOR THE PROGRAM TROPHY DONATED BY GEORGE KING.

The balloting is heavy to date with Fetoske, Oliver, Wally Piker, Ross, Gantenbein, Berly, Meola, Caldwell, Davis and Hogan getting the call.

Over in Baltimore they think pretty well of Joey Garbey as a shortstop. In any event the other day the Leaf's youngster was the only Toronto player named for a place on a mythical all star I. L. team. Seven Newark players were selected.

Steve Sundra and Joe Beggs of the Bears were picked for pitching duty up with Joe Quinn for 1st base; Joe Gordon for 2nd base; Dahlgren for 3rd base, and Jim Gleason, Bob Seeds and Charley Keller for the outfield. Bucky Crouse of the Birds was given the call for the back-stopping berth.

One reason why they like Howley's protege in the Maryland metropolis is because of the fact that he usually does some tall swatting in the baby grand layout miscalled a park by Baltimore fans.

But nevertheless it is quite an honor for the youngster to get the call over such seasoned performers as Nolan Richardson, Sankey, Mullavey and the Birds own Wimpy Wilburn.

George McQuinn is still on the sidelines, nursing a sore hand, but it is expected that the first baseman, who is rated by many as the best in the minors, will be ready to play before the series for the Governor's cup gets under way.

Prexy Frank Shaughnessey has changed his tune completely regarding the umpirical situation since he graduated from the ranks of the managers into a high executive

FATEFUL HOLE

The break came in the thirty-second, a par three, 169-yard hole. Ward pulled his iron into a trap and then dubbed an explosion shot. He chipped his third eight feet from the pin, but Goodman's drive was 16 feet from the pin and he was down in two putts for a win. It proved to be the hardest matches of his long career.

Ward and Goodman were two under par at 142 for the 36 holes. Ward had five birdies and an eagle, and Goodman had six birdies.

FOR PARADE

CHARLES GOOD

Even Arthur Leman and there is none more optimistic than "old sobersides" ambidextrous secretary of the Toronto league, is ready to throw up his hands when the Leafs' playoff chances are being discussed.

Nothing but a miracle such as the utter collapse of the Birds and Bisons coupled with a non-stop winning streak on the part of the Leafs can save the faces of Howley's crew now.

From this coign of vantage, whatever that means, the Leafs are going to be mighty lucky to crowd the Red Wings out of sixth place much less land in the first division.

There is this, however, in their favor: They have had the Indian sign on the Red Wings all season and going on the ol' dope which shows the Toronto club leading in the inter-club series with 11 wins as against 4 defeats they should make the grade.

Rochester at that was much stronger than they were some weeks back and Dan's younglings may not find them such easy pickings as they did earlier in the fray.

It is a pity too that the Leafs are not closer to the pace as the indications are that it will be a battle royal right to the wire. The Toronto club, though it can hardly get up there, can make it interesting for the contenders, however, as they have several games remaining with Montreal and Buffalo.

MAN FROM OMAHA AGAIN BIDDING FOR GOLF CROWN

Johnny Goodman for 8th Time Is Trying for Supreme Honors in U.S. Amateur

MEETS RAY BILLOWS

Portland, Ore., Aug. 28.—Johnnie Goodman, who has experienced all the disappointments golf can give, teed off to-day against Ray Billows, 24-year-old printing and lithography salesman of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., in the final of the national amateur golf championship.

It was the eighth time the stockily built Omaha insurance salesman has sought the title. Since he eliminated Bobbie Jones in the first round of the national amateur in 1929, he has returned every year, each time to be repulsed.

Goodman, 27-year-old former national open champion, has been the principal support of five brothers and two sisters. He eliminated Marvin (Bud) Ward of Tacoma, Wash., one up in a 36-hole semi-final match yesterday at the Alderwood Country club.

Had Tight Squeeze
For a time it appeared as if Goodman might again meet his fate of the past two years when he was put out in the semi-final rounds of the national amateur, but he squeezed through. Last year at Garden City he was defeated by Johnny Fischer of Fort Thomas, Ky., the present defending champion.

In meeting Billows to-day, Goodman faced one of the best golfers of the east. Billows went to the final by eliminating the placid-faced Fisher, 6 and under, in the first round.

Fischer was nine over par in his match. He was in trouble often when his woods and long irons plopped into deep rough. He was sent down at the 29th. Billows, who is New York state amateur champion, was three over par.

As the match ended, Billows hustled to the 30th hole and joined a gallery of 3,500 fans, thrilled by young Bud Ward's spectacular fight against Goodman.

CHARLES GOOD

Even Arthur Leman and there is none more optimistic than "old sobersides" ambidextrous secretary of the Toronto league, is ready to throw up his hands when the Leafs' playoff chances are being discussed.

Nothing but a miracle such as the utter collapse of the Birds and Bisons coupled with a non-stop winning streak on the part of the Leafs can save the faces of Howley's crew now.

From this coign of vantage, whatever that means, the Leafs are going to be mighty lucky to crowd the Red Wings out of sixth place much less land in the first division.

GEHRINGER SETTING FOR YANKEE RIVALS

Detroit Star Leads A.L. and Joe Medwick Old League Sluggers

New York, Aug. 28.—Charlie Gehringer, Detroit Tigers' second baseman, added 11 points to his average and held the American league batting leadership by a 23-point margin, according to averages released to-day and including games of Thursday.

Lou Gehrig, New York, dropped six points, but displaced Cecil Travis, Washington, in second place with 364. Travis dropped to fourth with 363. Joe DiMaggio, New York, continued to hold third place with 363.

Joe Medwick, St. Louis Cardinals' outfielder, dropped 11 points, but held the National league leadership with 360. Paul Waner, Pittsburgh, remained in second place with 357, while Gabby Hartnett, Chicago Cubs' catcher, held third spot with 372.

Charlie Root, Chicago Cubs, veteran reliever, took the National league pitching lead with 12 victories against four defeats. Cletus Poffenberger, Detroit rookie, led the American league hurlers with nine wins and two defeats.

CHIEF INTEREST NOW CENTRES IN "FAVORITE PLAYER" COMPETITION FOR THE PROGRAM TROPHY DONATED BY GEORGE KING.

The balloting is heavy to date with Fetoske, Oliver, Wally Piker, Ross, Gantenbein, Berly, Meola, Caldwell, Davis and Hogan getting the call.

Over in Baltimore they think pretty well of Joey Garbey as a shortstop. In any event the other day the Leaf's youngster was the only Toronto player named for a place on a mythical all star I. L. team. Seven Newark players were selected.

Steve Sundra and Joe Beggs of the Bears were picked for pitching duty up with Joe Quinn for 1st base; Joe Gordon for 2nd base; Dahlgren for 3rd base, and Jim Gleason, Bob Seeds and Charley Keller for the outfield. Bucky Crouse of the Birds was given the call for the back-stopping berth.

One reason why they like Howley's protege in the Maryland metropolis is because of the fact that he usually does some tall swatting in the baby grand layout miscalled a park by Baltimore fans.

But nevertheless it is quite an honor for the youngster to get the call over such seasoned performers as Nolan Richardson, Sankey, Mullavey and the Birds own Wimpy Wilburn.

George McQuinn is still on the sidelines, nursing a sore hand, but it is expected that the first baseman, who is rated by many as the best in the minors, will be ready to play before the series for the Governor's cup gets under way.

Prexy Frank Shaughnessey has changed his tune completely regarding the umpirical situation since he graduated from the ranks of the managers into a high executive

FATEFUL HOLE

The break came in the thirty-second, a par three, 169-yard hole. Ward pulled his iron into a trap and then dubbed an explosion shot. He chipped his third eight feet from the pin, but Goodman's drive was 16 feet from the pin and he was down in two putts for a win. It proved to be the hardest matches of his long career.

Ward and Goodman were two under par at 142 for the 36 holes. Ward had five birdies and an eagle, and Goodman had six birdies.

FOR PARADE

CHARLES GOOD

Even Arthur Leman and there is none more optimistic than "old sobersides" ambidextrous secretary of the Toronto league, is ready to throw up his hands when the Leafs' playoff chances are being discussed.

Nothing but a miracle such as the utter collapse of the Birds and Bisons coupled with a non-stop winning streak on the part of the Leafs can save the faces of Howley's crew now.

From this coign of vantage, whatever that means, the Leafs are going to be mighty lucky to crowd the Red Wings out of sixth place much less land in the first division.

CHIEF INTEREST NOW CENTRES IN "FAVORITE PLAYER" COMPETITION FOR THE PROGRAM TROPHY DONATED BY GEORGE KING.

The balloting is heavy to date with Fetoske, Oliver, Wally Piker, Ross, Gantenbein, Berly, Meola, Caldwell, Davis and Hogan getting the call.

Over in Baltimore they think pretty well of Joey Garbey as a shortstop. In any event the other day the Leaf's youngster was the only Toronto player named for a place on a mythical all star I. L. team. Seven Newark players were selected.

Steve Sundra and Joe Beggs of the Bears were picked for pitching duty up with Joe Quinn for 1st base; Joe Gordon for 2nd base; Dahlgren for 3rd base, and Jim Gleason, Bob Seeds and Charley Keller for the outfield. Bucky Crouse of the Birds was given the call for the back-stopping berth.

One reason why they like Howley's protege in the Maryland metropolis is because of the fact that he usually does some tall swatting in the baby grand layout miscalled a park by Baltimore fans.

But nevertheless it is quite an honor for the youngster to get the call over such seasoned performers as Nolan Richardson, Sankey, Mullavey and the Birds own Wimpy Wilburn.

George McQuinn is still on the sidelines, nursing a sore hand, but it is expected that the first baseman, who is rated by many as the best in the minors, will be ready to play before the series for the Governor's cup gets under way.

Prexy Frank Shaughnessey has changed his tune completely regarding the umpirical situation since he graduated from the ranks of the managers into a high executive

FATEFUL HOLE

The break came in the thirty-second, a par three, 169-yard hole. Ward pulled his iron into a trap and then dubbed an explosion shot. He chipped his third eight feet from the pin, but Goodman's drive was 16 feet from the pin and he was down in two putts for a win. It proved to be the hardest matches of his long career.

Ward and Goodman were two under par at 142 for the 36 holes. Ward had five birdies and an eagle, and Goodman had six birdies.

FOR PARADE

CHARLES GOOD

Even Arthur Leman and there is none more optimistic than "old sobersides" ambidextrous secretary of the Toronto league, is ready to throw up his hands when the Leafs' playoff chances are being discussed.

Nothing but a miracle such as the utter collapse of the Birds and Bisons coupled with a non-stop winning streak on the part of the Leafs can save the faces of Howley's crew now.

From this coign of vantage, whatever that means, the Leafs are going to be mighty lucky to crowd the Red Wings out of sixth place much less land in the first division.

CHIEF INTEREST NOW CENTRES IN "FAVORITE PLAYER" COMPETITION FOR THE PROGRAM TROPHY DONATED BY GEORGE KING.

The balloting is heavy to date with Fetoske, Oliver, Wally Piker, Ross, Gantenbein, Berly, Meola, Caldwell, Davis and Hogan getting the call.

Over in Baltimore they think pretty well of Joey Garbey as a shortstop. In any event the other day the Leaf's youngster was the only Toronto player named for a place on a mythical all star I. L. team. Seven Newark players were selected.

Steve Sundra and Joe Beggs of the Bears were picked for pitching duty up with Joe Quinn for 1st base; Joe Gordon for 2nd base; Dahlgren for 3rd base, and Jim Gleason, Bob Seeds and Charley Keller for the outfield. Bucky Crouse of the Birds was given the call for the back-stopping berth.

One reason why they like Howley's protege in the Maryland metropolis is because of the fact that he usually does some tall swatting in the baby grand layout miscalled a park by Baltimore fans.

But nevertheless it is quite an honor for the youngster to get the call over such seasoned performers as Nolan Richardson, Sankey, Mullavey and the Birds own Wimpy Wilburn.

George McQuinn is still on the sidelines, nursing a sore hand, but it is expected that the first baseman, who is rated by many as the best in the minors, will be ready to play before the series for the Governor's cup gets under way.

Prexy Frank Shaughnessey has changed his tune completely regarding the umpirical situation since he graduated from the ranks of the managers into a high executive

They're evenly filled to make them smoke smoothly and taste better - always!

WHITE OWL Cigars 5¢

TWO SHAPES - INVINCIBLE and STREAMLINE

Still another EXHIBITION Triumph

DIAMOND GLOVES BOXING CHAMPIONSHIPS

8 BOUTS COLISEUM AUG. 30 8.30 PM.

Canadian National Exhibition International Diamond Gloves Boxing Championships between amateur Golden Glove and Diamond Belt champions representing the United States and Provincial Champions representing Canada. Admission 25c. Ringside and Boxes reserved. Seats at Ticket Office, 8 King West, W.A. 2226. Monday 90 King West, E.L. 1098. Reservation ticket office, Grandstand, E.L. 1197; and at Coliseum box office Monday evening.

ALBERT BROWN, Edward A. Hedges, General Managers

CANADIAN NATIONAL EXHIBITION AUG. 27 to SEPT. 1 TORONTO 1937